Mayor J. W. Graham, of Hillsboro, is at the National.

yesterday at the Yarrowburgh.

J. A. Harrell, editor of the Henderson Tribune, put in an appearance yesterday.

Judge R. P. Buxton and lady were in the city yesterday en route home from a sojourn at Beaufort.

A large delegation from this city, will attend the ball at Kittrell's Springs on the 24th and 25th.

advertisement of Williamson, Upchurch & Thomas elsewhere.

We were glad to meet in our city on yesterday, Capt. W. K. Davis, of Franklin county, an efficient member of the present State Senate.

During the severe storm Saturday afternoon the Edenton Street Methodist Episcopal Church was struck by lightning on each of its front corners. The damage, however, was slight to the building.

Yesterday afternoon Cabarrus street witnessed a slight scuffle between two white women. After a few scratches and some hair pulling, at the instance of mutual friends, they kissed and made friends.

We learn there will be a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Isane Asylum on Thursday next. One of the objects, as we suppose, will be the election of a Steward to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Mr. Huggins.

yesterday at 9 a. m. All the Judges were present except Judge Boyden.

morrow at the usual hour.

A BOY KILLED AT DURHAM.—After the passage of the down mail train at Durham Friday night, a boy by the name of Webb, about 12 years of age, was found horribly mutilated near the railroad track. It was first supposed that the boy had been fatally dealt with by a negro man with whom he had angry words during the evening, but the coroner's jury that investigated the matter rendered a decision that he died of death by falling asleep on the railroad and was run over by the engine. The saddest part of the case, is, the boy returned home from his work in the town at 5 o'clock, and his mother ordered him to return as it was too soon to get work. When heartrending news reached her, she attempted to take her dead boy, saying it was she who caused his death, etc.

THE RALEIGH DISTRICT CONFERENCE.
The Raleigh District Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, will hold its meeting for the present year at Cary on Wednesday of the present week. The exercises will begin by worship in this church on Wednesday night. Thursday morning the Conference will be formally opened by Rev.
W. H. Battle, Presiding Elder. At the last meeting of the Quarterly Conference of this station the following were elected delegates to the District Conference: R. W. Best, J. A. Jones, F. H.
Solly, V. J. Young, Alternates, T. W.
Peck, J. C. Palmer, Henry Porter,
W. B. Hutchins.

The citizens of Cary have kindly consented to entertain the ministers and delegates, and from our knowledge of the good people of this section no one will suffer for want of attention.

A MAN KILLED IN ORANGE.—Kearney Andrews, Esq., was killed on Saturday last near Chapel Hill, in Orange county, by being caught in a wheat threshing machine. Mr. Andrews was stepping over the elevator which caught the lower part of his trousers, and was whirled around at a rapid pace for about two minutes. His head was beaten almost to a jelly. He leaves an aged father and mother who depended upon him for support.

NEGRO KILLED IN GASTON COUNTY.
From a private letter to a gentleman in this city, we learn that a white man, by the name of Penner, killed a negro at Oakes, in Gaston county, on Friday last. Penner attempted to escape, but was pursued and caught in Charlotte.

Compulsory Education.

Dear News.—I see among the proceedings of the Educational Convention held in Raleigh, as reported by your city papers, a resolution favoring compulsory education in our State. It is gratifying to those holding my views to know that this resolution was sanctioned by a majority of four only, and that on a day when a number of the delegates, amply sufficient to reverse the vote, had returned to their homes. I wish to state some objections to this resolution before it becomes too late, for when our gregarious people once take a stand they will no more remove than would Mount Athos at the command of Xerxes. To begin:

1. A system of compulsory education is opposed to the genius of a Republican government. Crotchetery as was Thomas Jefferson, he expressed sound American doctrine when he said, "That government is best which governs least." Gradual encroachments upon personal liberty insidiously reconcile republicans to a monarchy.

2. It is opposed to the spirit of our common law which wisely leaves the ordinary duties growing out of the domestic relations to the control of the forum in which they originate. It was well said by Justice Reade (in the State vs. Rhodes), that family circles "all have domestic governments which they have formed for themselves, suited to their own peculiar conditions, and those governments are supreme, and from them there is no appeal except in cases of general importance requiring the strong arm of the law."

3. The people of a free government are never willing to submit to law seeking the enforcement of mere moral or religious duties, or such as the Legislature may deem moral or religious. Witness the fate of the liquor laws in this country, and of the attempts to establish the English church in Scotland. Our ancestors did not flee to this country for freedom of conscience, with any thought of again committing this great error to the charge of others. It may be suggested that education is not a mere moral duty, but that it is a State necessity. Granted that general education is a State necessity, but general education may be had by large access to free schools, whilst universal education is not such a necessity as to overbalance the impolicy of exciting wide-spread discontent, by legislating away parental discretion. But it is superfluous to refer to public policy in combating this resolution, for it professes to strike at the root of domestic government and seeks to secure the "inalienable rights" of children.
If one should object that sec. 17, Art.
9 of the Constitution seems to compulsory education, I can only answer that the framers of that instrument, though long in power, have thought it wise to abstain from their constitutional authority.

4th. Compulsory attendance upon schools must injure those private institutions of learning in our State which in the dark days since the war have kept glowing the light of education—and for this reason, this compulsory plan must be systematic, and no system can be framed to meet individual exigencies. It is further urged, that the child to school at a time when he cannot raise funds to pay for private tuition—and off goes the child to a public school, where, perhaps, the Democratic parent may have his boy taught to laugh at Jeff Davis in petticoats, and the Republican father may find that his son has Grant and Bull puss indissolubly associated; where the Catholic parent may have his child taught to exult in the victory of the Boyne, and the Protestant to justify the massacre of St. Bartholomew.
Yet there is no help. The money for private instruction is lacking, and the poor man's boy must be educated not as he wills but as the State wills.

To conclude: It does seem to be stupidity and folly to draw analogies from Prussia and the other countries of continental Europe, where the government is still semi-despotic and where individual liberty is regarded not as an inalienable birthright, but as a benign concession from the monarch.

THE GOVERNMENT BUILDING.—Upon good authority we can now state that work upon the proposed Government building in this city will commence next month, advertisement having been made for contracts to furnish brick and dig the foundation. We learn that the building will front on Martin street, 117 feet. This is made necessary from the fact that the Government lot, on which the building is to be erected, has only a frontage of 105 feet, Fayetteville street, while a front of 210 feet can be obtained on Martin. To make amends for this there will be a spacious and imposing entrance on Fayetteville street, thirty feet from the pavement. It is presumed that the post-office will occupy the first floor, the Court room the second, while the third will be devoted to offices for the various Federal officials stationed in the city. The building will have a breadth of sixty feet.
The present unsightly wooden building, doing duty as a post-office, will soon be removed to that portion of the Court House square in front of the store of W.
C. Stonach.

VETERANS OF THE MEXICAN WAR.— At a meeting of the survivors of the Mexican war, living in this city and the vicinity, held in the office of Messrs.
Nichols & Co. on Saturday evening, it was determined to organize a State Association to co-operate with like associations now in existence in a number of the States of the Union for mutual good, and to keep alive those reminiscences of the past, which constitute such a bright era in our national history.
Another meeting is to be held on the 24th inst. to perfect the organization by the election of officers, and to receive into their keeping the flag presented to the volunteers by the ladies of this city on the eve of their departure for the seat of war. It is hoped that every survivor of this war whom this notice reaches will certainly attend in person, or signify in writing their intention to co-operate in the movement.

DEATH OF A PROMINENT CITIZEN OF FRANKLIN.—It is with painful regret that we record the death of Gray W.
Stokes, Esq., a leading and prominent citizen of Franklin county, which sad event took place at his residence, near Cedar Rock, on Saturday night at 8 o'clock. He was in his usual good health, and a hearty supper at 7 o'clock, a few minutes afterwards he was taken with an apoplectic fit and at 8 o'clock he was a corpse.

draw.

parties.

Additional excitement was caused in Brooklyn financial circles by the announcement that Judge Alexander Mc-Leone, the large stockholder of the Brooklyn Trust Company, and on whose application it was forced to suspend payment, has since Mills' death, been transferring his real estate in heavy blocks to his wife to secure himself from loss in case the Company proves insolvent. The transfers, which cannot be valued at $50,000, are first made by McLeone to Edgar M. Callen, then by the latter to McCue's wife. In addition to deposits hitherto reported, the United States government had $200,000 with the company; N. H.
Clement $13,000 and Dr. Bryant $2,300.
The more searching investigation the worse the condition of the concern appears to be. The Secretary, M. F.
Ridman, denies that he is also a defaulting, asserting that the Connecticut town bonds, furnished as security, will fully cover the loan to him from the company of $34,000.

NEW HAVEN, July 21.—Giovanni Giome, an Italian padrone, has been arrested in this city for holding four Italian children in a den on Oak street, supporting himself on their earnings as musicians and boot blacks. He has beaten some of them very severely.
Prosecuting Attorney Belden filed a complaint against him in the city court for holding free persons in servitude in violation of the provisional liberty bill of 1854. The cases were continued until the 23rd inst., and Judge Hanson laid Giome under bond of $100 on the last complaint. The Italian residents of the city are taking interest in the details, and believe this will lead to a thorough investigation.

Important Chancery Decision.

WASHINGTON, July 21.—Col. Charles Case, Receiver of the First National Bank of New Orleans, has just arrived and reports to the Comptroller of the Currency, that he has intelligence from Messrs. Jevon's & Riley, his Solicitors in Liverpool, that the House of Lords has recently decided the last of a series of chancery cases in his favor, thus securing some $70,000 or more to the fund for the general creditors of the Bank.
Col. Case must justly congratulate himself upon this result.

When the Bank failed some six years since, sundry creditors, who had bought its bills on the Bank of Liverpool, sought to secure payment of their claims in full by instituting proceedings in chancery in England, by which they tied up pendente lite and hoped finally to appropriate between $200,000 and $300,000 then on deposit in the Liverpool bank, upon appropriation of funds to pay the several bills as they were negotiated. They seemed confident of success and many other creditors and even some eminent lawyers were more than fearful that this large sum would be lost to the general fund, but the receiver, after a careful consideration of the facts, concluded that the suits ought to be defeated, both because these facts did not warrant the theory of any specific appropriation, and because it was not within the power of a National Bank to make such an appropriation on a time bill as against the contingency of its own intervening insolvency. He resolved, therefore, to contest the cases and did so. The decision of the vice chancellor, was adverse to him.
He appealed, and some two years since, the Lord High Chancellor, and three Judges with him sitting, pronounced an elaborate opinion reversing the Vice-Chancellor's decree, and decreing the money to be paid to the Receiver. All but two of the claimants acquiesced in this decree. These two, acting as is understood, upon the advice of Hon. J. P. Benjamin, formerly U. S. Senator, now a practicing barister and Queen's counsel in London, took an appeal to the House of Lords, thus tie-ing up £15,000 of the fund two years longer. This appeal, after the most elaborate argument on behalf of the appellants, has just been dismissed with costs, and the Receiver, after six years fighting from the lowest to the highest chancery tribunals in England, is finally completely successful.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS.

In order that the people may vote understandingly on the amendments to the Constitution, at the ensuing election, we deem it necessary to give in full the eight clauses in that instrument proposed to be altered, together with the alterations themselves.

FIRST: IN RELATION TO THE PUBLIC DEBT.

The present Constitution in Article I, Declaration of Rights, provides as follows:

"Sec. 6. To maintain the honor and good faith of the State untarnished, the public debt, regularly contracted before and since the rebellion, shall be regarded as inviolable and never be questioned; but the State shall never assume or pay, or authorize the collection of any debt or obligation, express or implied, incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave."

This section is amended by striking out the first clause down to and including the word "but," so that the amended clause in Article I will then read:

"Sec. 6. The State shall never assume or pay, or authorize the collection of any debt or obligation, express or implied, incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave."

Another alteration in regard to the public debt is provided for in the same amendment, by striking out section 4, Article V of the present Constitution, which is as follows:

"Sec. 4. The General Assembly shall, by appropriate legislation and by adequate taxation, provide for the prompt and regular payment of the interest on the public debt, and after the year 1880, it shall lay a specific annual tax upon the real and personal property of the State, and the sum thus realized shall be set apart as a sinking fund, to be devoted to the payment of the public debt."

So that the above section will be entirely stricken out and the amended Constitution will not make it compulsory on the Legislature, by express language, to provide for the payment of interest and principal of the public debt.

SECOND: IN RELATION TO THE OFFICE OF SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC WORKS.

Article III, section 1, of the present Constitution names among the other officers of which the Executive Department shall be composed, a Superintendent of Public Works, who shall be elected for a term of four years by the qualified voters of the State, at the same time and places, and in the same manner as members of the General Assembly.

The amendment proposes to strike out the words "Superintendent of Public Works" wherever they occur in the Constitution, thus abolishing that office.

THIRD: IN RELATION TO THE STATE CENSUS.

In the present Constitution, Article II, the following provision is made for taking a State Census:

"Sec. 5. An enumeration of the inhabitants of the State shall be taken under the direction of the General Assembly in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, and at the end of every ten years thereafter; and the said Senate Districts shall be so altered by the General Assembly, after the first session after the return of every enumeration taken as aforesaid, or by order of Congress, that each Senate District shall contain, as nearly as may be, an equal number of inhabitants, excluding aliens and Indians not taxed, and shall remain unaltered until the return of another enumeration, and shall at all times consist of contiguous territory; and no county shall be divided in the formation of a Senate District, unless such county shall be equitably entitled to two or more Senators."

The amendment proposed to this Article is to strike out all that precedes the words, "the said Senate Districts," in section 5, and to strike out the phrase "as aforesaid, or," the parts so stricken out relating to the census, so that the section as amended will read:

"Sec. 5. The said Senate Districts shall be so altered by the General Assembly at the first session after the return of every enumeration taken by order of Congress, that each Senate District shall contain, as nearly as may be, an equal number of inhabitants, excluding aliens and Indians not taxed, and shall remain unaltered until the return of another enumeration, and shall at all times consist of contiguous territory; and no county shall be divided in the formation of a Senate District, unless such county shall be equitably entitled to two or more Senators."

The object of this amendment is to do away with the unnecessary expense of taking a State census under the direction of the General Assembly, inasmuch as the same work is done by the national Government.

FOURTH: IN RELATION TO EXEMPTIONS FROM TAXATION.

The present Constitution, Article V, Revenue and Taxation, provides as follows:

"Sec. 6. Property belonging to the State or to municipal corporations, shall be exempt from taxation. The General Assembly may exempt cemeteries, and property held for educational, scientific, literary, charitable or religious purposes; also wearing apparel, arms for muster, household and kitchen furniture, the mechanical and agricultural implements for mechanics and farmers, libraries and scientific instruments, to a value not exceeding three hundred dollars."

The amendment proposes to change this section by inserting after the word "instruments," the words "or any other personal property," so that the section as amended will read:

"Sec. 6. Property belonging to the State, or to municipal corporations shall be exempt from taxation. The General Assembly may exempt cemeteries, and property held for educational, scientific, literary, charitable or religious purposes; also wearing apparel, arms for muster, household and kitchen furniture, the mechanical and agricultural implements of mechanics and farmers, libraries and scientific instruments or any other personal property, to a value not exceeding three hundred dollars."

FIFTH: IN RELATION TO THE UNIVERSITY.

The present Constitution, Article IX, has the following on the subject of the University at Chapel Hill:

"Sec. 5. The University of North Carolina, with its lands, emoluments and franchises, is under the control of the State, and shall be held to an inseparable connection with the free public school system of the State."

The amendment proposes to strike out this section entirely, thus severing the University from the common school system, and insert the following in lieu thereof, so that the amended Constitution shall read:

"Sec. 5. The General Assembly shall have power to provide for the election of trustees of the University of North Carolina, in whom when chosen shall be vested all the privileges, rights, franchises and endowments heretofore in any-wise granted to or conferred upon the trustees of said University; and the General Assembly may make such provisions, laws and regulations, from time to time as may be necessary and expedient for the maintenance and management of said University."

The following sections of Article IX, relating to the University, are also stricken out:

Sections 13, 14 and 15, relating to the appointment of trustees by the Board of Education, and the officers powers and rights of the trustees. These matters will hereafter devolve on the Legislature, if the amendment relating to the University is ratified.

SIXTH: IN RELATION TO THE SESSIONS OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

The present Constitution, Article II, Legislative Department, provides as follows:

"Sec. 2. The Senate and House of Representatives shall meet annually on the third Monday in November, and when assembled shall be denominated the General Assembly."

This section is to be amended by striking out the word "annually," and inserting in lieu thereof the word "biennially," so that the section amended shall read:

"Sec. 2. The Senate and House of Representatives shall meet biennially on the third Monday in November, and when assembled shall be denominated the General Assembly."

This amendment also strikes out the word "annually" in section 6, Article III, and inserts the word "biennially," in reference to the requirement of the Governor to communicate to the General Assembly each case of reprieve, commutation or pardon.

SEVENTH: IN RELATION TO THE CODE COMMISSION.

The present Constitution, Article IV, Judicial Department, makes the following provisions concerning the Code Commissioners:

"Sec. 2. Three Commissioners shall be appointed by this Convention to report to the General Assembly at its first session after this Constitution shall be adopted by the people, rules of practice and procedure in accordance with the provisions of the foregoing section, and the Convention shall provide for the Commissioners a reasonable compensation."

The amendment proposes to strike out both these sections, thus abolishing the Code Commission.

EIGHTH: IN RELATION TO FEDERAL AND OTHER OFFICE-HOLDERS.

The present Constitution, Article XIV, provides as follows:

"Sec. 7. No person shall hold more than one lucrative office under the State at the same time: Provided, That officers in the Militia, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Public Charities and Commissioners appointed for special purposes, shall not be considered officers within the meaning of this section."

The amendment proposes that this section shall read as follows:

"Sec. 7. No person who shall hold any office or place of trust or profit under the United States, or any department thereof, or under this State or any other State or Government, shall hold or exercise any other office or place of trust or profit, under the authority of this State, or be eligible to a seat in either House of the General Assembly: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall extend to officers in the Militia, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Public Charities or Commissioners for special purposes."

There were eighteen amendments originally proposed, but the eight above specified were all that passed the General Assembly by the requisite two-thirds majority.

These eight amendments are to be submitted separately for ratification or rejection, at the election to be held on Thursday, the seventh day of August. Any person qualified to vote may vote for or against each amendment, with a written or printed ticket with the words "For Amendment" or "Against Amendment." The amendments that will be a majority of the popular vote will be duly ratified. A part or all of them may be either ratified or rejected.
